

Joshua Creek Ranch

A YEAR-ROUND OUTDOOR DESTINATION

Although quail and upland bird hunting are the primary focus for autumn and winter months at this award-winning sporting resort, it's a shotgun shooter's dream destination in the spring and summer months as well. Situated to take in panoramic views of the scenic Hill Country near Boerne, TX, the fully-automated sporting clays course challenges shooters of every skill level. And for the wingshooting enthusiasts, private Columbaire pigeon shoots are organized on request.

Shooting sports are rapidly gaining popularity not just among men, but among women and youth, too. Shotgun shooting venues like sporting clays are particularly attractive as an outdoor activity for couples and families as well as guys out for some friendly competition. The cordial staff, first-class amenities, and beautiful Hill Country setting of Joshua Creek Ranch make it an especially desirable destination. Even beginning shooters progress rapidly with some advice from the full-time certified shooting instructor on staff.

Joshua Creek puts lots of appeal into the idea of shotgun shooting together as a bunch of buddies, a couple, or a family. Unlike most shooting facilities, Joshua Creek Ranch is open 7 days a week and has the bonus of accommodations and meals worthy of Beretta's Two Trident rating for excellence. Add to that the convenience of a fully-automated wobble trap and sporting clays course plus complimentary access to Joshua Creek for a dip in its clear, cool spring water after shooting and you've defined the perfect summer getaway.

The festive atmosphere of a private Columbaire Pigeon Shoot in this secluded setting has irresistible appeal to your invited guests. Make it a half-day or full-day party of friendly competition among your customers and friends who share your enthusiasm for wingshooting.

Don't have a shotgun?

Rentals are available in gauges from 12 to .410. You can get your ammo and other shooting accessories at the Ranch, too.
