HIGH-VOLUME

Driven Shooting is a centuries-old style of gamebird hunting rooted in European tradition. Combining breathtaking landscapes, fast-paced action, and challenging overhead shots, it delivers the ultimate fast-flying, high-volume wingshooting experience.

Open Line Driven Shoots at JCR make this unique and unforgettable experience accessible to anyone. There's no need to organize a full group or meet a minimum number of participants—simply book your individual peg, or come with a group if you prefer, and join a line of other wingshooting enthusiasts.
